

Ramalynn Montessori Academy

Dress Code

Dear Ramalynn Parents and Students,

We found that having a “dress code” minimized distractions to the educational environment and puts all students on an equal footing. This is in keeping with Ramalynn’s philosophy. The dress code has been well received by parents and students and therefore we ask all families to respect the dress code. Unity of dress also promotes school spirit and camaraderie among students.

Ramalynn’s Dress Code:

- * Polo shirts, with or without Ramalynn insignia, short or long sleeved, white or navy in color
- * Pants or shorts, pleated skirts, skorts or jumpers navy or khaki in color
- * Shoes: navy, black or brown in color- tennis shoes are acceptable
No Roller Shoes!! No flip-flops!!

Help our school by shopping at:

- *  Target - Target will donate 1% of any Target Purchase to R.M.A! School I.D.# 2307
- * Land’s End Inlet Store & Catalog (available at Ramalynn)
Land’s End will donate 3% of sales to R.M.A! School I.D. # 900058553

Add some flair to your look with Ramalynn Accessories:

If you would like to order “R.M.A.” polo shirts, sweatshirts, and ties please see me.

Student Expectations:

- * Hair: Hair may not be cut or colored unnaturally so as to call undue attention to the student (e.g., colored hair extensions, mohawks, etc.)
- * Other items prohibited: hats, coats (these must be kept in your locker during the school day), cut-off shorts, torn clothing, and clothing with inappropriate designs and/or messages
- * No tattoos, piercings, etc. that will cause distractions.

Non-uniform days will be announced throughout the school year. We will incorporate Holidays and other special “themes” into our non-uniform days. We appreciate your continual support and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Darla Pulles
Head of School
